Livingston Local No. 3 Of The Socialist Party

Livingston, Mont., May 23, '04
 Whereas, There has recently appeared in the state press, information to the effect that Comrades Walsh, Lynch, Harvey and Hughes of Lewistown, Montana have been expelled from the American Labor Union of that place, for the reason of being members of the Socialist party, and

Whereas, Clause No. 5 of the preamble of the American Labor Union, unequivocally declares for the principles of Socialism, be it Resolved, That Livingston Local No. 3 of the Socialist party in regular meeting assembled hereby petition Comrade Clarence Smith General Secretary and Treasurer of the American Labor Union to investigate this matter and effect a speedy adjustment if the Comrades' expulsion is due to this cause.

C. E. Richards, the undertaker, had charge of the funeral of Seth N. Fowler last Friday. Mr. Fowler was en route to Canada in search of a ranch, but death intervened. He was 68 years old.

Joe Redmond, well known in Ferguson county dropped dead last Sunday on the road to Kendall about 300 yards from the half-way house. He was with one of Oscar Stephen's freight outfits. The cause of death is supposed to have been heart disease.

Don't you Socialists get in your head that by electing a Socialist ticket you will get Socialism. There are two very important conditions necessary. First, evolutionary development, and second, education. The former, especially, is one of the factors that the sentimentalists or opportunist overlooks.

On Monday the 30th Lewistown fittingly observed Memorial day; a very long procession formed at the Culver opera house, after the exercises, and headed by a fife and drum core, G. A. R. veterans and members of Co. I marched to the cemetery where the graves of the departed soldiers were strewn with flowers. The procession was the longest that ever marched on Memorial day in Lewistown. The Odd Fellows, Red Men and Eagles had strong contingents out.

The miners employed at Whiskey Gulch quit the first of the week, the trouble as given by one of the men originated in the demand of two men who were sent to work in a shaft, for $4 per day. The management refused the demand, and the two men quit. Several other men employed at the mine were asked to go to work in the shaft in question, but all preferred to quit until the matter is settled. This action on the part of the men is a splendid proof of the fidelity of the miners to the principle of organized labor, that the concern of one is the concern of all. There is not much danger of a serious strike, as we are informed that the men who asked the $4 cannot be supported by the union in the demand. A member of the Western Federation informs us that the constitution defines the conditions under which men may receive $4 per day; at work in a shaft at least 100 feet deep and wet. However the matter will be adjusted at the meeting of the miners union tonight in the usual fair and able manner, and we await the decision in the hope that a strike can be avoided.

Get Judgment for $32,261.

Judgment was entered by Judge Holdom yesterday upon a confessed debt of $32,261 against Richard H. Clendenen. It was for notes given in 1894 at Martinsdale, Montana, to N. Bussen of Jerseyville, Illinois. The attorneys in the case refused to disclose the identity of Clendenen. —Chicago Tribune.

Grover Cleveland says that he believes that Alton B. Parker of New York will be the democratic convention nominee. How will this suit Bryan and Hearst?

How republican prosperity does keep up, over 40,000 textile operatives are reported idle in Philadelphia by the Globe-Dispatch. Well the workers voted for idleness, lock-outs, bull pens, bayonets, hunger and death, and they are sure getting them.

rades that I have mentioned was considering it from any other standpoint than the good of the party, every one of them was unanimous in the opinion that Comrade Debs would be the best possible man to nominate for President at this time. (Applause.)

"In relation to myself I do not know that there is much that I can say more than this: That I have never allowed myself to seek anything in the Socialist movement from a personal standpoint, or, for that matter, in any other movement, but at the same time I have always been in the position that whenever the party told me to do something I always did it, no matter whether I liked it or not. Comrade Titus made one mistake about me in placing my name before the convention. He spoke of my having made sacrifices for the Socialist movement. I want to say this, that the Socialist movement has done more for me than I can ever do for it. I do not know that I exactly agree with the philosophy that whom the Lord loveth. He chasteneth, but I do believe that there is nothing that a man can do in the world, that there is no blessing that can be conferred upon a man by any power on earth which will be of the immense benefit to him throughout his whole life such as that of following the conscientious convictions of his own mind in matters of right and wrong. I can say here that I very much doubt, so far from my having sacrificed anything for the Socialist movement, I very much doubt if I would have been alive to day had it not been for the Socialist movement, and I will tell you why. As a man in my trade about nineteen years ago there came in what we call the linotype typesetting machine. They put one of them in a printing office and one man got a job operating it and he would do the work of as high as five or six men who were there before this machine was brought in. Well, strange as it may seem, just about the time that typesetting machine was entering the printing office I got tangled up in the Socialist movement. (Laughter.) And every day when I was out of work, when I was a victim of any enforced idleness, instead of going to the gin mill and wasting my time as others among the workingmen had done, instead of becoming despondent I occupied all my time reading a book or a paper or making a Socialist speech on a soap box or something of that kind. In other words, what was despair to other people was the star of hope to me. (Loud applause.)

"Two or three year ago I went down in the coal region in Pennsylvania while the strike was going on there and I spoke three or four times, and wherever I went all it needed was to put a little placard out, leave a notice on a telegraph pole for two hours, and there, as though they had sprung out of the ground, were 1,000 men or 5,000 men or 10,000 men, and I can say that they heard me gladly, and not only me, but other comrades who were with me, and they did so because the men knew that the Socialist party was in sympathy with the trades unionists as against the capitalists. In their scraps with the capitalists. Now, there was another party that would like to have sent its speakers down to that field, but they would not have been favorably received, and that was the Socialist Labor party, and that party was not able to send speakers there just because of its attitude against the trades union. Now you think it is terrible when trades unionists make mistakes, but good Heavens, I would like to know down to this hour almost, when we have ever had a chance to make a mistake that we didn't make it. They have troubles, but Lord, look at the troubles we have had. (Laughter and applause.) And they are like us again in this further respect: They have no interest in perpetuating their mistakes any more than we have in perpetuating ours, and if they are wrong to-day they have got to be put into the crucible of experience so that they may come out right.

"Now, Comrades, you have the greatest privilege, as Comrade Titus has pointed out, that any people on the face of the earth have ever had before. No previous revolution ever had it in its power to do anything more than liberate a certain group of people or a little nation of people, but this movement proposes to free every man and every woman and every child on the earth, wherever they may be, for all time. This movement is not only worth living for, but it is better worth dying for than any other movement in the world. To bring about the furtherance of this thing I say to you, let your hearts be true as steel, be steeled to the very back, put your soul and your heart and your whole power into the action, and we will have Socialism in our time and in our country." (Long continued applause.)
